NAMES

A

G. Θαλικτρον

L. Sophia Chirurgorum

I. Talictro

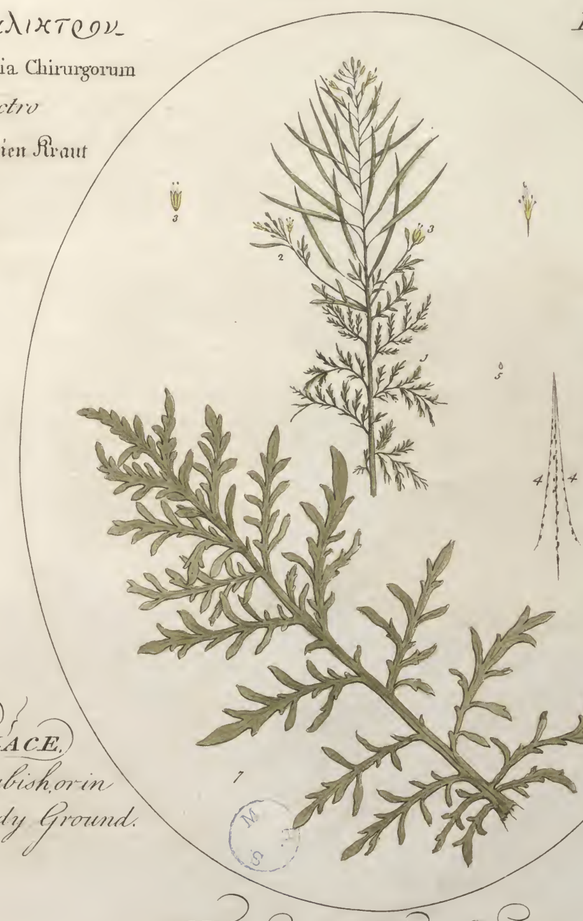
G. Sophien Kraut

F

S

D

FLIXWEED.



PLACE.

In Rubish or in Sandy Ground.

DESCRIPTION.

This Plant which is one Species of Cresses, has a whi
many fibres, from which grows an upright hard Stalk, abo which is set with leaves of a pleasant Green s finely cu on the Stalk, which bends a little at every leaf, from w Branches 2 The Flowers 3 are small Yellow, growing Ends of the Branches, having each four Chives, with fo of the Same Colour. The Seed Vessel is Slender, and wh split off in two parts, Leaving the Middle part on the Stal that are small and of a Light Reddish Clay Colour are dis soon after dies. 6 a Seed Magnified. 7 is a Leaf growin

VIRTUES

A Decoction of the Seeds not Bruised, is said to be good Bloody flux; and if Bruisd, usefull against the Ston

T Sheldrake delin